

MEDIA RELEASE

NEWS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF TASMANIA

Tuesday 10 December 2013

Attention: Chiefs of Staff, News Directors

Graduations kick-start students' festive season

Years of hard work, study and perseverance will be rewarded with degrees and diplomas this December as the University of Tasmania's annual graduation ceremonies take place.

More than 3580 students will graduate across the state. (Students may graduate without physically attending their ceremony.)

Hobart: 2462

Launceston: 1013

Burnie: 111

The Town and Gown processions are a special feature of the December graduation rounds, in which academics and graduands file through the streets of Launceston and Hobart before attending their ceremonies. (Further information will be released to media shortly before the processions.)

The 2013 Town and Gown processions are:

- Launceston: Saturday 14 December - 10:30am
- Hobart: Wednesday 18 December - 2:30pm

December graduation ceremonies across Tasmania:

Date	Time	Faculty	Location
Tuesday, 10 December	4:30pm	Faculty of Arts Faculty of Business Faculty of Education Faculty of Health Science Faculty of Science, Engineering and Technology Allied research higher degrees	Burnie Town Hall
Saturday 14 December	11am	Australian Maritime College Faculty of Science, Engineering and Technology Allied research higher degrees	Launceston Albert Hall
	2.30pm	Faculty of Arts Faculty of Education Allied research higher degrees	Launceston Albert Hall
	5.30pm	Faculty of Business Faculty of Health Science	Launceston Albert Hall

Date	Time	Faculty	Location
		Allied research higher degrees
Monday 16 December	3pm	Faculty of Science, Engineering and Technology Awards (including majors in BSc and BSc Hons) in: Agriculture; Antarctic Studies/Science; Biochemistry; Biotechnology; Environmental Management/Planning; Geography and Environmental Studies; Geographic Information Systems; Geology; Geomatics; Geophysics; Marine Science; Microbiology; Plant Science; Surveying and Spatial Sciences; Zoology. Allied research higher degrees	Hobart University Centre
	6pm	Faculty of Science, Engineering and Technology Awards (including majors in BSc and BSc Hons) in: Chemistry; Clinical Psychology; Counselling; Computing/Applied Computing; Engineering; Information Systems/Management/Technology; Mathematics; Physics. Allied research higher degrees	Hobart University Centre
Tuesday 17 December	11.30am	Faculty of Education Allied research higher degrees	Hobart Federation Concert Hall
	3pm	Faculty of Arts Awards (including majors in BA and BA Hons) in: Criminology/Corrections; Police Studies; Social Science; Social Work; Sociology. Faculty of Law Allied research higher degrees	Hobart Federation Concert Hall
	6pm	Faculty of Arts Awards (including majors in BA and BA Hons) in: Humanities; Fine Art/Design/Music; Time-Based Multimedia; Visual Communications. Allied research higher degrees	Hobart Federation Concert Hall
Wednesday 18 December	11am	Faculty of Health Science Awards including Behavioural Science, Counselling; Health Science; Health, Nursing and Psychology. Allied research higher degrees	Hobart Federation Concert Hall
	3pm	Faculty of Health Science Awards including Medicine and Surgery; Medical Sciences; Medical Research; Pathology and Pharmacy. Allied research higher degrees	Hobart Federation Concert Hall
	6pm	Faculty of Business Allied research higher degrees	Hobart Federation Concert Hall

Media opportunities: The best times for photos and filming are generally an hour or so before the ceremonies, when graduands take photos outside venues with their friends and families, and at the Town and Gown processions.

Information released by:

UTAS Communications and Media Office

Phone: (03) 6226 2691 or 0447 537 375

Email: Media.Office@utas.edu.au