

MEDIA RELEASE

NEWS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF TASMANIA

DATE: WEDNESDAY 20 MARCH 2013

ATTENTION: Chiefs of Staff, News Directors

---

Careers in the creative industries highlighted

With UTAS' world-class Academy of Creative Industries and Performing Arts on its way and the Federal Government's new Creative Australia policy, it's a great time to be aiming for a career in the arts.

The range of careers available across the creative and tourism industries will be showcased at the UTAS Careers Fair tomorrow (Thursday 21 March) at the Fair's "Leisure, Tourism, Heritage and the Arts" day.

Highlights of "Leisure, Tourism, Heritage and the Arts" day at the Careers Fair:

Hobart:

12pm, TUU Activities Centre, Hobart: Hot Topic, "Why are Festivals a Career Opportunity?" Presented by Kris Stewart, Festival Director, Festival of Voices.

Hobart:

12.30pm, TUU Activities Centre, Hobart Q and A panel: Graduate Career Pathways. Presented by:

Delia Nichols - UTAS Graduate, MONA Research Curator

Luke Martin – CEO of Tourism Industry Council of Tasmania

Julia Fassina – on behalf of The Hospitality Association

Stewart Long – recording musician and UTAS lecturer

Launceston:

12.30-1.30pm, Inveresk, Launceston, "Art/Work: Opportunities for Visual Arts Grads."

Q and A Speaker Panel:

Rebecca Birrell - UTAS Graduate, BFA, Birelli Design

Lola Greeno - UTAS Graduate, BFA, Arts Tasmania

Daniel Kershaw - UTAS Graduate, BCA, QVMAG

For more information on the UTAS 2013 Careers Fair, please visit:

<http://www.utas.edu.au/careers-fair/>

Information Released by:

The UTAS Communications and Media Office

Phone: (03) 6226 2691 or 0447 537 375

Email: Media.Office@utas.edu.au