Launceston graduation celebrations

University of Tasmania graduands will celebrate new beginnings in Launceston tomorrow as they mark the end of their studies.

After years of hard work and perseverance, more than 1000 students will graduate in three ceremonies to be held in Albert Hall.

The first ceremony will be preceded by a Town and Gown procession through the streets of Launceston, highlighting the strong connection between the University and the city.

Academics and graduands will gather in Civic Square tomorrow morning. At 10.30am the procession, with police escort and band, will move from Civic Square south along St John Street, east along Brisbane Street, and then through City Park, arriving at Albert Hall at 10.45am.
