Albert Hall Graduation Ceremony for more than 350 students

University of Tasmania students from seven faculties will celebrate their academic achievements tomorrow (Saturday 18 August) as they graduate at a ceremony at the Albert Hall in Launceston.

University Chancellor Mr Damian Bugg and Vice-Chancellor Professor Daryl Le Grew will confer post graduate and graduate degrees to 358 graduands.

The ceremony will be held at 11am, with the occasional address given by Dr Alison Crook, former Deputy Vice-Chancellor of Monash University.

Students will graduate from the faculties of Arts, Business, Education, Health Science, Law and Science, Engineering and Technology.

Professor Le Grew congratulated all of the students on their outstanding achievement.

“Their graduation rewards their commitment and hard work, and the support of their family and friends. They are the embodiment of the university’s vital contribution to Tasmania,” he said.

Guests at the ceremony will include Emeritus Professor Coleman O’Flaherty, AMC President Professor Malik Pourzanjani, Senator Helen Polley, Michael Ferguson MHR, and Peter Gutwein MHA.

Refreshments will be served after the ceremony in the Esk Café area of the Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery at Inveresk. The City of Launceston R&SLA Pipe Band will perform outside the venue.
