Enjoy the warmth of community this Sunday at UTAS

The UTAS annual Beanies and Mittens event is on again this Sunday 22 July 2012.

This is the third year this fun, free event has been held. Come and enjoy live music, hot soup and drinks, glowing fires and good company.

There will be a beanies and mittens contest and the chance to win prizes.

Jacinta Young, Executive Director, Commercial Services and Development at UTAS, said the event is a great opportunity to connect with the local community.

“This event is getting bigger every year, with more and more people attending – we expect this year to be bigger still.”

More than 150 guests, staff, students and members of the local community have attended the past two years' events.

Beanies and Mittens is presented by UTAS Accommodation Services, Christ College Student Club, and the Community Friends and Networks Program.
