Jane Hutchinson to give International Women's Day address

Chief Executive Officer of the Tasmanian Land Conservancy and 2016 Tasmanian Australian of the Year Jane Hutchinson, will give an International Women's Day address at the University of Tasmania tonight.

A committed conservationist, Jane Hutchinson was one of several volunteers who started the Tasmanian Land Conservancy (TLC) in 2001.

The TLC now protects around 65,000 hectares of habitat for threatened flora and fauna and is highly-regarded for its important and innovative conservation work.

Ms Hutchinson leads many science-driven conservation projects which safeguard the habitat of threatened species, including the Tasmanian devil, wedge-tailed eagle and Clarence Galaxias native fish.

Jane Hutchinson is available for interview today on 0427 810 966.

What: International Women's Day Address by Jane Hutchinson.

When: 8 March 2016, 6.00pm to 7.30pm.
