Walkley-winning journalist Peter Cave to speak at University

Walkley Award-winning journalist Peter Cave will deliver a public lecture at the University tonight (Wednesday 23 July). Mr Cave will speak on: Conflict and the Media: The War on Information.

He retired as Foreign Affairs Editor for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation in July 2012. His first overseas posting was to Japan (1983-86).

Throughout his 40-year career as one of journalism's top foreign correspondents, Mr Cave has been recognised as a leader not only by his Australian colleagues, but by his peers around the world.

He has won six Walkley Awards, Australian journalism's most prestigious accolades.
