

MEDIA RELEASE

NEWS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF TASMANIA

DATE: MONDAY 7 JANUARY 2013

ATTENTION: Chiefs of Staff, News Directors

Summer students set to get creative

Students will forgo the beach to get creative at the seventh annual Tasmanian Creative Arts Summer School (TCASS) which starts today and runs until January 18.

There are 13 courses on offer spanning many aspects of the creative arts, including musical theatre, drawing, photography and furniture design.

Students can count courses towards university studies or take courses as a one-off.

The teaching staff are drawn from local and interstate artisans and practitioners to provide a quality learning experience for students.

There is a variety of courses taking place tomorrow (Tuesday 8 January 2013) as part of the TCASS, including:

Ceramics: ideas from the body

What: This ceramics course which introduces students to creating figurative objects.

When: 10.30am-12pm.

Where: Ceramics studio, UTAS Inveresk campus, Launceston.

Who: Students and course teacher Sonya Brough.

Contact: (03) 6324 4423.

Drawing from the environment/Wilderness and Natural Environment

What: These concurrent workshops explore approaches to drawing a variety of open air spaces, both urban and natural.

When: 9.30am-11.30am.

Where: Cataract Gorge, Launceston.

Who: Students and course teacher Sue Henderson.

Contact: Peter Hammond.

For more information about TCASS, visit: <http://www.utas.edu.au/tasmanian-creative-arts/>

Information Released by:

The UTAS Communications and Media Office

Phone: (03) 6226 2691 or 0447 537 375

Email: Media.Office@utas.edu.au