NEWS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF TASMANIA

DATE: TUESDAY 20 AUGUST 2013

ATTENTION: Chiefs of Staff, News Directors

Take a closer look this Sunday...

The University of Tasmania's annual Open Day is this Sunday and prospective students, families and members of the community are invited to come and take a closer look at UTAS.

All UTAS campuses in Hobart, Launceston and Burnie will be open from 10am-3pm on Sunday 25 August 2013.

Visitors to Open Day will have the chance to find out about study options, take campus tours, enjoy presentations and performances and take part in activities and workshops.

Free shuttle buses in Hobart and Launceston will be available to allow visitors to experience as many of the University's campuses as possible across the day.

This year visitors will also be able to tour the new Medical Sciences 2 building in Hobart's Medical Sciences Precinct.

There will be a comprehensive range of course information available and presentations for those interested in studying with UTAS, as well as the opportunity to speak with course advisors and current students.

In addition, there will be a wide range of fun and interactive activities and expos.

There will be plenty to keep children entertained, with demonstrations and displays from clubs and societies, activities such as face painting and a jumping castle.

Refreshments will also be available, including free BBQs.

The UTAS Open Day program (covering all three Tasmanian campuses) is available for download: <http://www.utas.edu.au/open-day/>
